IF LAWS WERE AS LAWS SHOULD BE

AN INTERNATIONAL law should be enacted making it a serious offense for a peaceful, unpuissant liner, engaged in conveying passengers and products, to attack submarines, and there should also be an enactment against railroad trains traversing the airlines reserved for the sky pilots.

No wonder Germany refuses to make reparation for sinking the Arabic. Look how seriously the diver was menaced. Even if there was armament aboard it would have been compelled to duck its head every time it was shot at, which would have offended its dignity. The Arabic was peacefully pursuing its course, the one it had always traveled. The submarine intercepted it, hovered at its bow with but its periscope showing, and then discharged the torpedoes which sent so many to their death. It was on the same order for the kaiser to require Belgium to pay a huge indemnity for permitting itself, a neutral nation, to be devastated.

NOW IS THE TIME TO SWAT THE FLY

NATURE rendered material assistance to the people of Tonopah this morning in swatting the flies, the little pests having perished by the million. It was noticed, however, after the sun came out good and warm that thousands of them were feasting on swill that had been thrown from the front door of a cabin on upper Florence avenue. They were fattening themselves for impending hibernation. At this season in particular it is dangerous to leave exposed any decaying matter upon which they may feed, for every female fly that is thus permitted to gorge herself before retiring for the winter is likely to become the mother of hundreds of thousands of the pests as soon as the spring opens. There are two seasons when the greatest success is made of swatting the fly, and they are when she first appears in the spring and when she prepares to hibernate in the fall.

COLLAR THE CANINES

THE London Times is quite right in saying: "This is no time to be mauding about animals," when an appeal was sent to that paper for assistance for the home for homeless cats. Neither is this a time for mauding about stray dogs when hydrophobia is spreading about Nevada. Let the license ordinance be enforced and tags placed on all dogs, destroying those that are not tagged. Then, if rabies appear, the owners may be forced to muzzle their licensed pets. With the hosts of unowned canines roaming through the city and subsisting at the garbage dump, the menace to human life would be great if hydrophobia should put in its appearance, as it has in the northern tier of counties.

SAFEGUARD AGAINST FIRE

THIS morning was the first of the season that was cool enough for heating stoves and one of them succeeded in igniting the ceiling of a room, causing an alarm to be turned in while a high wind was blowing. Fortunately the damage was slight, but there should have been none at all. People who have installed stoves this season, or who have moved into other houses where they know nothing of the safety appliances on their flues should make thorough examination of them before starting the first fire of autumn. It is usually the case that there are a succession of fires at the outbreak of cold weather, due to this lack of application of one of the first principles of safety first.

HANGING NOT FULL PENALTY

THERE are many good people who shiver at the idea of capital punishment and who are endeavoring to have it abolished, in fact have practically succeeded in Nevada. But what other punishment than the noose could have expiated the crime of David Fountain? In this instance the mere taking of his life was not an eye for an eye nor a tooth for a tooth. The preliminary should have been torture both mental and physical, as will all fathers and mothers agree. The old Biblical system, which is being deemed too severe in these days of silk gloved criminology, will in time be found to have erred on the side of leniency.

MAKE A CLEAN SWEEP

THE fire department is to be commended for removing the greater amount of the tarvia dust from two blocks on Main street and for disturbing the equilibrium of it on other thoroughfares, but that is not sufficient. Before the wintry gales set in we expect the commissioners to make a thorough cleanup. The job is half completed, but a clean sweep is demanded.

TEST OF THE TARIFF IS YET TO COME

WHEN the war is over, that is when the Wilson tariff will begin to work its havoc in the country. But perhaps we can get it modified before the new and more determined European invasion will begin. Some of the countries of Europe will find it hard to dispose of their surplus goods to other European countries, due to the state of feeling that will exist. Britishers will not buy of Germans, nor will Germans buy of British manufacturers. All over Europe such feelings will abound and it will be necessary for such countries to go to the outside world for their markets. The United States being a creditor nation, able to buy and to pay, will become the special field. The agents of European houses will overrun the American states. They will put their goods into this country at prices that will drive American manufacturers out or else force down wages to the European standards and the European standards will be low after the war while the industries are recuperating.

If we want to escape the floods and the wiping out of our own industries we will have to get into a better tariff position. We cannot do it without modifying our tariff as it now exists. It is low now that the waters will flow over and overflow if not drown us industrially.

SMALL BLAZE QUICKLY CHECKED

The department was called out at 8:30 this morning for a blaze on upper Florence avenue. It was caused by starting the first fire of the season in a house where the flue was defective. As a result the ceiling was quickly in flames. Women in the neighborhood went to work as a bucket brigade and when the department arrived there was nothing to do except apply the chemical.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The following prices f. o. b. Detroit, effective August 2, 1915:

Ford Runabout	$390.00
Ford Touring Car	440.00
Ford Town Car	640.00

No speedometer included in this year's equipment, otherwise cars fully equipped.

There can be no assurance given against an advance in these prices at any time. We guarantee, however, that there will be no reduction in these prices prior to August 1, 1916.

Profit-Sharing with Retail Buyers

On August 1, 1914, we made the announcement that if we could make and sell at retail 300,000 Ford cars between Aug. 1, 1914, and Aug. 1, 1915, we would share profits with retail purchasers to the extent of from $40 to $60 on each car.

We have sold over 300,000 Ford cars in the time specified, and profit-sharing checks of $50 each will be distributed as rapidly as possible after August 15, 1915. Retail purchasers who have not yet mailed us their profit-sharing coupons, properly endorsed, should do so without delay. Our plan to profit-share with retail purchasers of Ford cars during 1914-15 has been most successful. We thoroughly believe in it, but, realizing the uncertainty of conditions generally makes it advisable to defer any announcement of future profit-sharing until a later date. We are, however, confident of our inability to reduce costs for several months, and therefore can offer no profit-sharing for cars delivered during August, September and October, 1915.
